A five days faculty development program on ICT Tools for Effective Teaching & Learning was organized by DIMR during 16th Dec to 20th Dec 2019. The FDP was attended by 38 participants of different institutes in Pune district. A brief report is given below

In the inaugural ceremony, Dr Sajid Alvi Director of the institute welcomed the participants and resource person Prof Shital Kalhapure and Prof Deshmukh. He further highlighted the importance of online method of teaching in the present scenario. He stressed the importance of technology in education system and need of faculty members to acquaint with the various ICT tools to enhance the teaching learning process.

Prof. Shital Kalhapure explained the theme of the program in the beginning of FDP as follows:

1. Understanding online education
2. Digital tools for developing e contents
3. ICT and Effective presentation Skills
4. Preparation of E Certificates
5. LMS platforms

Prof. Shital Kalhapure emphasized on three major process related to ICT and education namely interaction, presentation & assessment. The sessions helped to promote student centric effective teaching-learning pedagogy among the participants.

Participants were enlightened with the most widely used technologies in academic activities. The participants got enriched with a thorough technical knowledge relating to E- learning after undergoing the training sessions. This in turn likely to help in teaching and assessment of students. The interaction sessions with the participants were very useful and informative to the participants. Prof Yogesh Deshmukh emphasized the inevitability for each one in the teaching fraternity to be updated to the highest available standards of digital tools. A few topics covered during the FDP are as follows. The list is not exhaustive.
