Eco-friendly Ganpati Idol Making Workshop

Event Name: Eco-friendly Ganpati Project

Date: 13th September 2023

Time: 2:30 P.M.

Venue: DIMR

MBA 1st year students with their hand made ecofriendly Ganpati idol.

Objectives of the Event:

- To create the awareness among the students towards environment and radiate creativity.
- To spread the message of environmental sustainability.
- To inculcate the environmental and social responsibility values among the students.

Event Description:

On Day 9 of our Induction Ceremony for the MBA and MCA Batch 2023-25, we proudly celebrated our eco-friendly Ganpati project, a true testament to our commitment to sustainability. In collaboration with the Green Club@DIMR, our first-year students came together to create stunning, sustainable Ganpati idols that not only showcased their creativity but also reflected a profound respect for our environment. These beautifully crafted idols symbolize our collective dedication to fostering a greener future, proving that artistry and eco-consciousness can go hand in hand.

Learning Outcome:

- Students gained insights on teamwork skills by collaborating with peers and the Green Club, fostering a sense of community and collective responsibility.
- Participants developed a sense of responsibility toward the environment and community, understanding how their actions can make a difference.

Guest speaker Ms. Vishakha Gadekar interacting with the participants

Event Description:

The 'Selena' Personality Development Workshop at DIMR, held in collaboration with Brand Touch & Analytics, Whisper, and Venus, was an empowering and transformative experience for our female students. With Ms. Vishakha Gadekar as the distinguished speaker and Priyanka Huske as the Event Promoter, the workshop aimed to inspire, educate, and equip students with essential skills for personal and professional growth.

The workshop began with an exploration of Personality Development, where captivating videos helped students understand the importance of self-discovery and how to enhance their unique individuality. This was followed by a segment on Grooming & Hygiene, where visual demonstrations highlighted the significance of personal care in building confidence and making a lasting impression.

One of the key elements of the workshop was the Soft Skill Training, where insightful videos provided valuable guidance on developing critical soft skills like communication, teamwork, and leadership. These skills are pivotal in shaping the students' personal and professional journeys.

The session was a harmonious blend of theoretical knowledge and practical learning, with students actively engaging in the discussions and demonstrations. As a special gesture, Priyanka Huske distributed delightful goodies to the participants, adding a thoughtful touch to the event.

The 'Selena' workshop was more than just a session—it was a celebration of self-improvement and empowerment, offering students a pathway to grow, gain confidence, and embrace new opportunities. DIMR is committed to providing continuous transformative experiences, and the success of this workshop marks just the beginning of many more such journeys of personal growth and empowerment.

Objectives of the Event:

- To celebrate Diwali in the true spirit of giving, by decorating the Gurukul with lanterns and diyas, and sharing Diwali snacks and gifts with the children, thereby spreading joy and happiness during the festival.
- To encourage the holistic development of both DIMR students and the children at the Gurukul by blending education with cultural activities.
- To create a joyful, interactive environment where the students of DIMR could bond with the children at the Gurukul, spreading festive cheer and emotional support through shared activities and conversations.

Event Description:

Students of DIMR brought a smile on the faces of kids of Punarutthan Samarasta Gurukulam through Pre-Diwali celebration with them. In the Gurukul, kids are provided formal schooling as well emphasis is given on traditional skill development. DIMR Students decorated the place with lanterns and diyas. The students spend the time with these kids by chit chatting and by doing some fun activities. Staff and students visited woodwork, bamboo work and pottery workshops which are run by Gurukul. Padmashree Awardee Mr. Girish Prabhune sir guided our students and illuminated the purpose of this Grukulam. The Diwali snacks and gifts shared with kids worked wonders.

We left the premise half-heartedly with positive energy, vibes, & by admiring zeal of Mr. Girish Prabhune Sir & his team for their continual efforts for nurturing of these pure souls.

Learning Outcome:

- Through meaningful interactions and fun activities with the children, students enhanced their communication, listening, and interpersonal skills, learning how to connect with individuals from diverse backgrounds and age groups.
- The event provided students with the opportunity to work together as a team to plan, decorate, and execute the celebration, fostering a sense of collaboration and the ability to coordinate efforts toward a shared goal.
- The event encouraged students to be more emotionally aware, helping them recognize the significance of emotional connections and the positive impact such interactions can have on both themselves and others.
- Students developed a deeper sense of social responsibility by engaging with children from underprivileged backgrounds, learning the importance of kindness, empathy, and community service in making a positive impact

Students of DIMR, Pune attended live webcast program at Seminar Hall on Viksit Bharat@2047: Voice of Youth. Prime Minister Narendra Modi launched the "Viksit Bharat@2047: Voice of Youth" initiative through a live webcast on December 11, 2023. PM Modi addressed Vice Chancellors, Heads of Institutes, and faculty members in workshops organized at Raj Bhawans across the country. He stressed the need to link all academic streams towards achieving the common goal of "Viksit Bharat." He suggested running special campaigns in every college and university to connect more youth with the initiative.

He emphasized the role of universities in shaping the minds of the youth and preparing them for the future. He encouraged the youth to think big, dream big, and work hard for the development of the nation. He concluded by urging everyone to take a pledge to dedicate themselves to building a strong and prosperous India.

Learning Outcome:

- Students learned about the significance of innovative thinking, hard work, and dedication to national progress.
- Students understood the importance of aligning their goals with broader social and economic objectives, fostering a sense of purpose and community.

Event Description:

DIMR organized a comprehensive Stress Management Workshop on 27th February 2024 at the DIMR Seminar Hall, bringing together students, faculty, and staff to address the growing need for effective strategies to cope with stress. This workshop was designed to equip participants with the knowledge and tools necessary for reducing stress and enhancing overall well-being.

The workshop focused on raising awareness about the causes and effects of stress, helping attendees understand its impact on both mental and physical health. Participants were introduced to practical stress-reduction techniques such as mindfulness, relaxation exercises, and time management strategies to manage daily pressures effectively.

In addition to providing valuable tools, the event emphasized the importance of creating a supportive environment where open dialogue about mental health could take place. Attendees were encouraged to share their experiences, ask questions, and learn from one another in a safe and non-judgmental space.

The workshop also empowered participants to develop personalized stress management plans tailored to their unique needs and circumstances. By fostering individual resilience, the event aimed to cultivate a collective sense of well-being, reinforcing DIMR's commitment to the mental and emotional health of its community members.

Event description:

On March 20, 2024, the DIMR campus came alive with nature as students celebrated World Sparrow Day, a special occasion dedicated to raising awareness about the conservation of sparrows and other small birds. Amidst the lush greenery of the campus, students embarked on a challenge to capture the elusive sparrows on camera, testing their patience and wildlife photography skills. Armed with mobile phones, they ventured into the campus garden, capturing the graceful flight and subtle beauty of these tiny birds that are often overlooked in urban environments.

The event not only celebrated the art of photography but also focused on active conservation efforts. In a creative and eco-conscious initiative, students repurposed waste plastics to craft innovative water beds for the sparrows, ensuring that these vital creatures had access to clean water in an otherwise challenging urban landscape.

As the day unfolded, students shared their photographs and experiences, weaving stories through dialogues, songs, and reflections that brought the photographs to life. Every corner of the campus became a stage for these adventures, from the courtyard to the garden, where sparrows flitted between the greenery.

More than just an event, World Sparrow Day at DIMR was a reminder of the delicate relationship between humans and nature. It reinforced the importance of preserving biodiversity and highlighted the power of collective action in fostering a more sustainable and harmonious environment. The event left an indelible mark on all who participated, sparking a renewed commitment to environmental stewardship and a deeper connection to the natural world.

Learning outcome:

- Participants developed a stronger emotional and intellectual connection to nature, fostering an understanding of how human actions can support or disrupt local wildlife populations.
- Participants gained a deeper understanding of the importance of sparrows in urban ecosystems and the broader implications of wildlife conservation.
- The event inspired students to continue engaging in conservation initiatives beyond the celebration, motivating them to take active roles in preserving local wildlife and biodiversity.
